HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE C.V. RAMULU

W.P.No.15238 of 2005

ORAL ORDER:

It seems, the petitioner holds the temporary dealership of fair price shop of Namassivayapuram village, Kurichedu Mandal, Prakasam district. At a time when he was denied for allotment of essential commodities to her fair price shop, she filed a representation before the 1st respondent-Joint Collector, who informed the 2nd respondent-Mandal Revenue Officer through his letter dated 15-6-2005 that even though the case under Section 6-A of the Essential Commodities Act, 1955 is pending against the petitioner, if the authorization has not been suspended by the competent authority, i.e., Revenue Divisional Officer, Kandukur, she is entitled for allotment of essential commodities. When these orders dated 15-6-2005 of the 2nd respondent were not implemented, the present Writ Petition is filed.

At the time of admission of the Writ Petition on 15-7-2005, there was an interim direction to the 2nd respondent to allot the essential commodities to the petitioner for supply to the cardholders, pending Writ Petition before this Court.

Learned Government Pleader now submits that after passing the Orders dated 15-6-2005 by the 1st respondent-Joint Collector, the authorization of the petitioner was suspended, after conducting a detailed enquiry into the matter. Further, the petitioner carried the matter in appeal before the Joint Collector and the same is pending. In view of the above, nothing survives for adjudication in the Writ Petition.

The Writ Petition is, therefore, closed. No costs.
